

Alaska continues to Bring The Kids Home

It's true:

- Most of the children ARE home (or at least, back in Alaska)
- We have most of the residential resources that we need
- Successful strategies are in place
- We hope to "end" BTKH by FY2013

We invite Legislators, Legislative Staff, and the Public to two events to find out more and get an update!

What still needs to be done?

- What: Buffet lunch, courtesy of the Alaska Mental Health Trust Authority
- Where: Cathedral of the Nativity of the Blessed Virgin Mary, 416 Fifth St., Juneau
- When: Tuesday, Feb. 16, lunch served 11:45; presentations 12–1 p.m.

*Meet youth, parents, providers, state staff and other
Bring The Kids Home stakeholders*

- What: Social: snacks, courtesy of the Alaska Mental Health Trust Authority
- Where: Pizzeria Roma, 2 Marine Way, #104 (in Merchants Wharf Mall)
- When: Tuesday, Feb. 16, 5–7 p.m.

For more information about Bring The Kids Home, the next quarterly meeting is Feb. 16–17 at the Cathedral of the Nativity of the Blessed Virgin Mary, 416 Fifth St., Juneau. There will be a discussion of BTKH outcomes, projects, plans and budget increments. To review a draft of the agenda, please go to: http://www.mhtrust.org/calendar/index.cfm?fa=ShowEvent&Classid=75&event\_id=615. For background documents and reports, go to: <http://www.hss.state.ak.us/commissioner/btkh/reports.htm>.

