9. Establish liaisons with other groups and committees concerned with health care.

E) RESPONSIBILITIES OF MEMBERS

Commission members shall:

1. Make every effort to attend all regular meetings of the commission, and inform the Chair when unable to do so. Commission members who miss two consecutive regular meetings without cause shall be consulted by the Chair, and may be removed from the commission after missing three consecutive regular meetings without a valid excuse.
2. Assist the commission in identifying and analyzing health care issues and developing recommendations
3. Keep informed about issues before the commission, and carefully prepare for commission meetings by reading material provided and becoming familiar with agenda topics.
4. Fully participate in, contribute to, and support commission discussions and decisions.

5. Practice active listening, show consideration for differing ideas, maintain a questioning attitude, and respectfully raise opposing viewpoints.
6. Serve on committees created by the commission to advance the purpose of the commission.
7. Follow-through on assigned tasks.
8. Identify conflict of interest situations and abstain from actions relating to them.

F) STAFF

The commission shall employ an executive director, who may not be a member of the commission. The executive director serves at the pleasure of the commission, and is in the exempt service. The executive director shall perform the duties prescribed by the commission, and assist the commission in carrying out its duties as specified in these bylaws.

The Department of Health & Social Services may assign employees of the department to serve as staff to the commission. The commission shall prescribe the duties of the staff.

ARTICLE IV
MEETINGS

- A) The commission shall meet at the call of the chair at a minimum of four times per year.
- B) The commission may use teleconferencing and other electronic means to the extent practicable in order to gain the widest public participation at minimum cost.
- C) Meetings of the commission are open to the public in accordance with AS 44.62.310 and AS 44.62.320.
- D) The commission may hold public hearings to gather information and opinions from health care consumers on matters before the commission. Hearings shall be conducted under AS 44.62.210, except that the commission shall provide public notice of hearings not less than 15 days before the conduct of the hearing and include not fewer than three notices published in the statewide news media.

ARTICLE V
COMMITTEES

- A) The commission may create committees at the discretion of the commission to meet the goals and objectives established by the commission.
- B) The chair of each committee shall be a commission member. Other membership requirements for each committee will be established by the commission. Committee members shall serve until completion of duties delegated by the commission.
- C) Services rendered by committee members shall not be compensated, except for travel and per diem expenses as allowed for commission members as detailed in Article III.C of these bylaws.

ARTICLE VI
RECORDS AND PROCEDURES

- A) Commission decisions and recommendations shall be communicated to the Office of the Governor, Commissioner of the Department of Health & Social Services and to other appropriate state agencies.
- B) The commission shall keep minutes of proceedings of the commission and any committees of the commission.
- C) The commission shall keep accurate and complete financial reports.
- D) Records of the commission shall be kept by the commission's designated state agency, the Department of Health & Social Services.
- E) All records of the commission are subject to inspection and copying as public records under AS 40.25.110 – 40.25.220.

ARTICLE VII
PARLIAMENTARY AUTHORITY

- A) A quorum is required to officially convene a meeting of the commission. A quorum is a simple majority of the voting members (4 of 7 voting members must be present).
- B) To the greatest extent possible, decisions will be made by consensus. If a consensus is not possible and a decision is required, Robert's Rules of Order, as Revised, shall govern the deliberative and decision making process.
- C) The commission may use teleconferencing and other electronic means to conduct business.

ARTICLE VIII
ETHICS AND CONFLICT OF INTEREST

A) Ethics

The provisions of the Alaska Executive Boards Ethics Act (AS 39.52) apply to all commission members, the Executive Director and staff. The pamphlet prepared by the Alaska Department of Law entitled "Code of Ethics" is designed as a guide for members in understanding the Alaska Executive Branch Ethics Act.

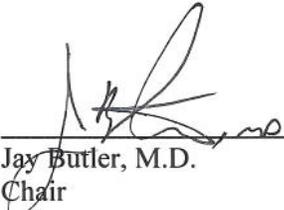

B) Conflict of Interest

1. A member of the commission who has a direct and substantial conflict of interest in an official action of the commission shall declare such interest on the record, and shall request to be excused from voting on such action.
2. Any person who believes that a member of the commission has a conflict of interest may so advise the Chair of the commission.
3. The Chair of the commission shall make a ruling regarding commission member ineligibility to vote on an issue due to conflict of interest. The ruling of the Chair may be overruled by a majority vote.

ARTICLE IX
AMENDMENT OF BYLAWS

These bylaws may be amended at any scheduled meeting of the commission by a majority vote of commission members provided that written notice and copies of the proposed amendment have been submitted to the members thirty (30) days prior to commission meetings and the proposed amendment is read at two (2) meetings before it is voted on.

IN WITNESS THEREOF, the foregoing bylaws are hereby adopted as the bylaws of the Alaska Health Care Commission, in Anchorage, Alaska, to be effective as of May 26, 2009.
