Sharing Our Talents

On any given Thursday, you can find Al Weber, musician and song leader, volunteering his time and talent to share music with the people who live in our Aurora neighborhood. He plays his autoharp and tells stories about the music along the way. Recently Milt Mayr, opera singer, has been sharing his love of Irish music with the residents. They make a dynamic duo and we thank them!

In Memoriam

We lost our dear friend Bob Ingram in January. It was quite unexpected. He was on a trip to Anchorage and died at Alaska Regional Hospital. He created the wooden hangers for our name signs in Moosewood. Many of us have mementos of his woodcraft talents. He was a man of God and would help anyone in need. We miss him very much.

Martin Luther King Jr. Day

Our special friends from Fairbanks Christian Center come to join us every year to celebrate the life of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. They sing, bring gifts and fellowship with all of us. They also are here once a month to help at Ice Cream Social. Below, Gene welcomes members of the church.

Fairbanks Pioneer Home News American Lung Association

Octavia Harris, from the American Lung Society, will be here on Thursday, February 26, to speak to us about the services her organization might offer us. Families are welcome to join us in the Library at 3:30pm.

Slides of the Grand Canyon

Resident Dick Underwood will be sharing his slides of the Grand Canyon with all of us on Wednesday, February 25, at 1:30pm in the Ptarmigan Room. He and his wife, Patsy, once lived in the area and he is eager to share their experiences.

Elegant Evening

This month's festive meal is on Thursday, February 12, at 6pm. Our theme is "An Elegant Evening." We will have a delicious meal provided by our kitchen staff and some piano music to enhance your enjoyment of the evening. Guests are welcome and the cost for the meal is $10. Remember to make a reservation if you plan to join us, 458-2230.

Superbowl Party

Join Angie in the Ptarmigan Room on Sunday, February 1, at 2pm to cheer on your favorite team. We are preparing some special snacks for the party. We are having shrimp, cocktail weenies, a homemade cheese ball and cupcakes in team colors. Yumm!
