Something New

Music is magic! We have acquired a set of bells and started a bell choir. The residents love to play and have already mastered some songs and shared them at our Valentine's Day chocolate fountain event.

Sharon Wells, bell choir leader, teaches the group.

New Residents

In the last few months we have had new residents join us at our home. Joyce Paskvan, Olga Baker, Alma Ginn and Doris Poland are new friends and we are already getting to know them. Welcome, ladies!

Outings in March

Ice carvers are busy right now at the George Horner Ice Park. The multi-block competition ends on March 5 and we plan to tour the park on March 10 at 10:30am and March 11 at 1:30pm. We will also have lunch at Shogun on March 2. The new North Pole Library has opened and we will take a trip to see it on March 23. If you want to go any of these trips, call Teri at 458-2243 or tell one of the Activities staff.

Ray Bonell

Ray Bonell, historian and artist, will be here to share his art and knowledge of Alaska's historical building and events. Ray has a column in the Sunday paper where his drawings are featured. Join us in the Library, on Thursday, March 12, 2pm, in the Library. We look forward to his visit!

Employee Service Awards

The following staff earned service awards. When you see them, thank them for their tender loving care of our residents.

5 years: Dora Baker, Darla Eckert, Myrna McGovern, Jessica Ramos

10 Years: Twila Sweet, Christine Byram, Jennifer Roseitti

15 Years: Tamami Smith, Lucreta Davis, Felila Agae, Nila Morris, Shonie Beltz

Festival of Native Arts

The Festival of Native Arts gets under way in March. This year we are fortunate to have performers from native dance groups join us on Saturday, March 7 at 2pm. Join us in the Rec Room for this special program.

Elegant Evening

Our festive meal theme for February was "An Elegant Evening." We had candles and fresh flowers on the table with prime rib for dinner. Robert, our food service manager, celebrated his first anniversary with us. Below he serves fresh fruit for dessert.
