May in Review

On May 4th residents gathered in the Ptarmigan Room to watch the Kentucky Derby and sip on Mint Julips.

Mother’s Day Tea Time was a huge success this year. We honored the mothers with eclairs, tea, cookies and beautiful flowers.

On May 11th Frontier Baptist Youth Choir came and sang for our residents. The residents enjoyed their performance and it

On May 14th students from Effie Kokrine Charter School came and help with pulling weeds, fill flower boxes, and rake leaves. Thank you for all of your help!

May 23rd residents, staff and our 4H volunteers came out to transplant flowers into boxes and planters. Thank you for making the Pioneer Home bloom! We will have cucumbers, tomatoes, peas, squash and many beautiful flowers!

Our smiling residents being served tea and treats!

Lovely ladies on a lovely Mother’s Day!

Planting flowers and making the Pioneer Home bloom!

4H, residents, and staff getting dirty planting!
