- Kimberlee in Fairbanks asked if current guidelines or media recommendations are in the plan, and would like to share those with communities served by Tanana Chiefs Conference.
- Anna Fairclough is paying close attention to the costs involved in this plan as they move forward with budgets.
- Shirley Cote' thanked Representative Fairclough for her ongoing dedication to help reduce underage drinking.

❖ Update on SPF Community Grantees and annual SPF grantee meeting/training in September, Devon Lewis

September 26-28 Training Highlights

Agnew:Beck provided Training with Paula Feathers, a SPF SIG expert from New Mexico. Each of the grantees attended the meeting with their Project Director, Evaluator, Coalition Representative and additional staff. The focus of this training was on building capacity and strategic planning (Steps 2 and 3 of the Strategic Prevention Framework). In addition to the training, the state level evaluation team conducted focus groups.

Where are grantees?

Currently the grantees are revisiting their community level logic models to apply the public health approach to the way they're implementing prevention efforts to reduce alcohol abuse. Each of the grantees is in their preliminary stages of identifying strategies.

❖ Site Visits

The Training and Technical Assistance providers from Agnew:Beck have the following site visits planned:

- Karen and Sherrie went to Petersburg met to coalition
- Shelly is going to Nome on November 3rd.
- Sherrie and Beth going to Sitka on Tuesday
- Susie and Beth to Yakutat week before last
- Fairbanks hasn't been meeting regularly with Sylvan.
