Notice of Protection from Retaliation and Resident’s Grievance, Policy and Procedure AS 47.33.340, AS 47.33.350

1. Protection from Retaliation. Under AS 47.33.350, an Assisted Living Home may not take retaliatory action against a resident of the home if the resident, or the resident’s representative:
   a. exercises a right provided by AS 47.33, 7 AAC 75, or by law;
   b. appears as a witness, or refuses to appear as a witness, in an adjudicatory proceeding regarding the home;
   c. files a civil action alleging a violation of assisted living licensing statutes; or
   d. claims a violation of assisted living licensing statutes before a state or federal agency having jurisdiction over the home or its employees.

2. Resident’s Grievance Policy and Procedure. Under AS 47.33.340, an Assisted Living Home must establish a written grievance procedure for handling complaints of residents. The procedure must provide for the following rights of residents:
   a. the right to present both a written and oral explanation of the resident’s grievance;
   b. the right to have an advocate or representative of the resident’s choice attend meetings concerning the resident’s grievance; and
   c. the right to be notified in writing, within 30 days after the filing of the grievance, of the final decision of the home regarding the grievance.

The grievance policy/procedure is as attached.

I have read, or had read to me, in a language that I can understand, the foregoing Notice of Protection from Retaliation, Grievance Policy and Procedure; and I was given a copy of this notice at the time I began residency at (Assisted Living Home Name).
