

ACCESSIBLE SUMMER CAMP DIRECTORY ALASKA 2015

DISCLAIMER

The information contained in this directory is to provide parents with information about potential summer camp activities that are accessible and emphasize a healthy lifestyle through nutrition and/or physical activity. Camp organizers provided the information about each camp. The Alaska Health and Disability Program do not endorse or guarantee the accuracy of the information provided. We recommend parents contact camp organizers to discuss specific needs to ensure a good fit between child and camp opportunity.

ADAM'S CAMP ALASKA

ADAM'S CAMP

CAMP TYPE: Day Camp; Therapeutic

CAMP ACTIVITIES: This is a multi-disciplinary therapy camp for children on the autism spectrum. Campers receive six hours of one-on-one therapy per day while being given the opportunity to participate in camp activities. The focus areas are socialization, communication, and helping children develop independence in a camp setting. Older campers participate in outdoor activities and field trips.

This camp emphasizes a healthy lifestyle through physical activity, both indoors and outdoors. This camp exclusively serves campers with disabilities.

AGE RANGE: 4-12 years

GENDERS: Co-ed

- Campers with mobility devices such as a wheelchair – it depends.
- Campers who need toileting assistance or are not potty trained.
- Campers who need extra cuing or supervision beyond their same-aged peers.

WHAT DO YOU WANT PARENTS TO KNOW ABOUT HOW YOUR PROGRAM CAN MEET A CHILD'S SPECIAL NEEDS?

Campers are provided six hours of multi-disciplinary therapy per day. Each family and a member of the therapy team determine the individualized goals for each camper prior to camp starting. The camper benefits from a collaborative approach by the therapy team. At the end of camp, each family has a private conference with the therapy team to discuss their child's goals, progress made on goals, and suggestions to move forward. The camp also includes a sibling program at no additional cost. Siblings have a chance to bond with other siblings dealing with similar family situations. We want the entire family to feel loved and supported.

WHAT DO YOU WANT PARENTS TO KNOW ABOUT HOW YOUR PROGRAM PROMOTES A HEALTHY LIFESTYLE?

There is an emphasis on social skills, communication, and developing self-confidence in a fun, supportive camp setting.

WHAT DO YOU WANT PARENTS TO KNOW ABOUT HOW YOUR PROGRAM CAN MEET A CHILD'S SPECIAL NEEDS?

Camp Yes in the Woods is directed by a speech language pathologist, an occupational therapist, and a professional educator. Our goal is to provide a fun experience where children can play outside together, learning about social thinking and self-regulation while experiencing the natural environment around them.

WHAT DO YOU WANT PARENTS TO KNOW ABOUT HOW YOUR PROGRAM PROMOTES A HEALTHY LIFESTYLE?

At Camp Yes in the Woods child learn how to play outside and how to play together. We go on hikes, build forts, learn about plants, animals and ourselves.

JUNIOR MASTER GARDENER

ALASKA BOTANICAL GARDEN

CAMP TYPE: Day Camp; Environmental (i.e., wildlife ecology)

CAMP ACTIVITIES: The Junior Master Gardener program is a youth gardening program that engages children in novel, "hands-on" group and individual learning experiences that provide a love of gardening, develop an appreciation for the environment, and cultivate the mind. JMG also inspires youths to be of service to others through service learning and leadership development projects. Children can get involved in exploring their world through meaningful activities that encourage leadership development, personal pride and responsibility, and community involvement. Youth take part in growing healthy fruits and vegetables, hiking through the Garden and trails, and exploring the outdoors!

This camp emphasizes a healthy lifestyle through nutrition education, healthy eating, and physical activity, both indoors and outdoors. This camp integrates campers with disabilities with campers without disabilities.

WHAT DO YOU WANT PARENTS TO KNOW ABOUT HOW YOUR PROGRAM CAN MEET A CHILD'S SPECIAL NEEDS?

JMG is a fun, experiential program that is perfect for children with special needs. This hands-on program touches on all the senses and is a great, safe way for kids to be outside and learn about nature. As of 2013, ABG has a new paved trail that leads all around the Garden, including our JMG garden area.

WHAT DO YOU WANT PARENTS TO KNOW ABOUT HOW YOUR PROGRAM PROMOTES A HEALTHY LIFESTYLE?

Gardening is a fantastic way to teach kids about healthy eating while also incorporating physical exercise. Throughout this program, children are able to grow a vegetables garden and see the season from seed to harvest. Produce is sampled, and any additional is donated to Bean's Cafe and/or the Children's Lunchbox. It's kids growing food for kids!

WILD ROSE SUMMER CAMP

WILD ROSE SUMMER CAMP

CAMP TYPE: Day Camp; Arts (i.e., drama)

CAMP ACTIVITIES: Wild Rose Summer Camp is an outdoor educational camp providing children with an enthusiastic experience of the outdoors, coupled with a creative art program. Both are designed to nourish and strengthen, as well as enrich the growing child. Wild Rose Summer Camp gives children quality experiences in art. Children will spend the mornings participating in art projects which will include felting, batik, natural plant dyeing on silk, paper making from plants, tie-dyeing, block printing, pottery, copper work, candle dipping, marbling, and silk screening. All projects involve working with high quality materials. Camp afternoons will be filled with games, hiking, puppetry, storytelling, garden study, beekeeping, plant and bird identification, and building small shelters from willow and alder. Children will also participate in building and cooking in an outdoor earthen oven. An earthen kiln will also be made and used to fire the pottery the children make throughout the camp session. The camp's goal is to help each child develop an attitude of respect and wonder for the environment, along with a love of learning. The program is designed to promote confidence and self-esteem in the child through the art experience. Camp is situated in a beautiful natural setting surrounded by a field and woods. All activities will be based out of tepees. Care is taken by our instructors to provide for the children a rich environment that brings nurturing, guidance, and cooperation where imagination and creativity will flourish.
