

One Voice, One Vision, One Community

One Voice: Can you hear me?

One Vision: Can you see me?

One Community: Together we can support and protect vulnerable Alaskans

A free resource fair for vulnerable adults, families, caregivers and service providers

* Resource booths

* Much more

Date: Sept. 5, 2014

Time: 10 a.m.-3 p.m.

Location: BP Energy Center

Two presentations:

10:30 a.m.-12:30 p.m.

Mental Illness Basics: Education and Empathy

Panel Discussion - NAMI Anchorage, the local affiliate of the National Alliance on Mental Illness

Tom Inglehart, Secretary, NAMI Anchorage
Board of Directors

Brandon Williams, staff, NAMI Anchorage
Development and Training Manager

1:30-3 p.m.

Helping People Understand Navigating thru Systems of Support

Kara Thrasher-Livingston, Training Supervisor,
Operations and Training Unit, State of Alaska
Senior and Disabilities Services

Speak Up For At-Risk Adults:

Warning Signs of Abuse and Neglect

Sudden Change in Behavior, finances or lifestyle

Physical injuries, dehydration or malnourishment

Extreme withdrawal, depression or anxiety

Absence of basic care or necessities

Kept away from others

Unsanitary living conditions

Personal items or money missing

IMAGINE A WORLD
WITHOUT ABUSE OF VULNERABLE ADULTS

We do.

Join Us!

State of Alaska
Division of Senior and Disabilities Services
Adult Protective Services
dhss.alaska.gov/dsds/pages/aps

Location: BP Energy Center
900 E. Benson Blvd.
Anchorage, Alaska

