

One Voice, One Vision, One Community

One Voice: Can you hear me?

One Vision: Can you see me?

One Community: Together we can support and protect vulnerable Alaskans

A free resource fair for vulnerable adults, families, caregivers and service providers

* Resource booths

* Much more

Date: Sept. 25, 2014

Time: 10 a.m.-3 p.m.

Location: Noel Wien Public Library

Three presentations:

11:00-11:30 a.m.

Fairbanks Memorial Hospital; Lifeline a personal, medical alert service with new options available:

Jeanette Grasko, Lifeline coordinator

11:45 a.m.

Fairbanks Crisis Intervention Team (CIT);

A Viable Community Partnership Fairbanks Police Department:

Alana Malloy, Detective

1:00 p.m.

North Star Council on Aging; Services provided by the Senior Center:

Darlene Supplee, Executive Director

Speak Up For At-Risk Adults:

Warning Signs of Abuse and Neglect

Sudden Change in Behavior, finances or lifestyle

Physical injuries, dehydration or malnourishment

Extreme withdrawal, depression or anxiety

Absence of basic care or necessities

Kept away from others

Unsanitary living conditions

Personal items or money missing

IMAGINE A WORLD WITHOUT ABUSE OF VULNERABLE ADULTS

We do.

Join Us!

State of Alaska
Division of Senior and Disabilities Services
Adult Protective Services
dhss.alaska.gov/dsds/pages/aps

Location: Noel Wien Public Library
1215 Cowles St.
Fairbanks, Alaska

