

One Voice, One Vision, One Community

One Voice: Can you hear me?

One Vision: Can you see me?

One Community: Together we can support and protect vulnerable Alaskans

A free resource fair for vulnerable adults, families, caregivers and service providers

- * Resource booths
- * Much more

Date: Sept. 19, 2014

Time: 10 a.m.-3 p.m.

Location: Mendenhall Mall & Library

Presentations:

10:00 a.m. Opening Ceremony

10:45 a.m. Qualifying for Medicaid:

Miller Trust, Holly Handler– Alaska Legal Services

11:45 a.m. Establishing an Alternative Decision Maker POA/guardianship:

Holly Handler– Alaska Legal Services

12:45 p.m. Homeless in SE Alaska:

Dan Austin– General Manager of St. Vincent De Paul

1:45 p.m. Planning Ahead: Eligibility and Availability of Placement and Services, a panel discussion:

Laurie Cooper DSDS,

Blayne Hildebrand Pioneer Home,

Sharon Woodard Wildflower Court,

Angela Hanley RN, DSDS,

Barbara Dick, Adult Protective Services Manager, Training and Development Unit

Speak Up For At-Risk Adults:

Warning Signs of Abuse and Neglect

Sudden Change in Behavior, finances or lifestyle

Physical injuries, dehydration or malnourishment

Extreme withdrawal, depression or anxiety

Absence of basic care or necessities

Kept away from others

Unsanitary living conditions

Personal items or money missing

IMAGINE A WORLD WITHOUT ABUSE OF VULNERABLE ADULTS

We do.

Join Us!

State of Alaska
Division of Senior and Disabilities Services
Adult Protective Services
dhss.alaska.gov/dsds/pages/aps

Location: Mendenhall Valley Public Library
9105 Mendenhall Mall Rd., #134
Juneau, Alaska

