

Anchorage

Agency	Description of services	Who can be referred	Area of the state served
Big Brothers Big Sisters SYNC-Mentorship Grant	Matching foster youth and former foster youth with adult mentors.	Foster Youth ages 14-21; May be in or out of custody. Contact Regional Independent Living Specialist for referral.	Anchorage
Cook Inlet Tribal Council- Circles of Support Grant	In-Home Family Preservation Services: Family Service Coordination, Service plan implementation and monitoring, Assessment of family progress, Parent Education and Support; and Transportation Services.	OCS case worker refers for families with child(ren) in the home. OCS may have an open case, or may close after referral if no safety threat is identified. Family may be referred for reunification when child is or will soon be on a Trial Home Visit. OCS Grant Manager is Alana Medel.	Anchorage
Cook Inlet Tribal Council- Family Contact Services Grant	Family Contact Services: Supervised family contact, Transportation.	OCS case worker refers for OCS involved families with child(ren) in out of home care. OCS Grant Manager is Alana Medel	Anchorage
Cook Inlet Tribal Council- Family First Prevention Services	Secondary Prevention Services: Creation of a Prevention Plan with the family, providing in-home services, making referrals as needed, and case management. Includes regular face to face contact through the completion of the prevention plan.	Families where there is at least one child determined to be at imminent risk of entry into foster care, but able to safely remain at home or in a kinship placement with receipt of services under the child's prevention plan. The following populations are prioritized for prevention services: Substance exposed newborns and their parents, Parents of children under the age of five, Parents or caregivers who were in foster care as a child. Grant manager is Amelia Rivera.	Anchorage
Covenant House Alaska	Emergency Shelter Services for youth in crisis	Youth ages 13-20, OCS Grant Manager is Naomi Davidson	Anchorage
Providence Health System Alaska C.A.R.E.S. Child Advocacy Center 907-561-8301	Coordinated Forensic Interviewing, Case management, provision of comprehensive medical evaluations, crisis mental health services and family advocacy services for victims and their families.	Any child who is an alleged victim of sexual abuse, severe physical abuse, domestic violence, severe neglect, and/or drug endangerment. Referrals can come from OCS or Law enforcement agencies. OCS Grant Manager is Richard Bloomquist.	Anchorage
Rural CAP - Family Support Services Grant 907-865-7331	Primary Prevention services: In-home supports; ongoing family assessment; facilitated access to resources; service coordination; parent education and support; and transportation.	Non-OCS involved families. Referrals can come from OCS, the community or parents. OCS Grant Manager is Alana Medel.	Anchorage

Northern

Agency	Description of services	Who can be referred	Area of the state served
Kawerak- Family First Prevention Services	Secondary Prevention Services: Creation of a Prevention Plan with the family, providing in-home services, making referrals as needed, and case management. Includes regular face to face contact through the completion of the prevention plan.	Families where there is at least one child determined to be at imminent risk of entry into foster care, but able to safely remain at home or in a kinship placement with receipt of services under the child's prevention plan. The following populations are prioritized for prevention services: Substance exposed newborns and their parents, Parents of children under the age of five, Parents or caregivers who were in foster care as a child. Grant manager is Amelia Rivera.	Nome and the villages of the region
Kawerak- Child Advocacy Center	Coordinated Forensic Interviewing, Case management, provision of forensic medical exams, referrals for crisis mental health services and family advocacy services for victims and their families.	Any child who is an alleged victim of sexual abuse, severe physical abuse or domestic violence. Referrals can come from OCS or Law enforcement. OCS grant manager is Richard Bloomquist.	Nome and the villages of the region
Maniilag- Family First Prevention Services	Secondary Prevention Services: Creation of a Prevention Plan with the family, providing in-home services, making referrals as needed, and case management. Includes regular face to face contact through the completion of the prevention plan	Families where there is at least one child determined to be at imminent risk of entry into foster care, but able to safely remain at home or in a kinship placement with receipt of services under the child's prevention plan. The following populations are prioritized for prevention services: Substance exposed newborns and their parents, Parents of children under the age of five, Parents or caregivers who were in foster care as a child. Grant manager is	Kotzebue and surrounding areas
Nome Community Center- Circles of Support Grant	In-Home Family Preservation Services: Family Service Coordination, Service plan implementation and monitoring, Assessment of family progress, Parent Education and Support; and Transportation Services	OCS case worker refers for families with child(ren) in the home. OCS may have an open case, or may close after referral if no safety threat is identified. Family may be referred for reunification when child is or will soon be on a Trial Home Visit. OCS Grant Manager is Alana Medel	Nome and surrounding rural area.
Nome Eskimo Community- Family First Prevention Services	Secondary Prevention Services: Creation of a Prevention Plan with the family, providing in-home services, making referrals as needed, and case management. Includes regular face to face contact through the completion of the prevention plan	Families where there is at least one child determined to be at imminent risk of entry into foster care, but able to safely remain at home or in a kinship placement with receipt of services under the child's prevention plan. The following populations are prioritized for prevention services: Substance exposed newborns and their parents, Parents of children under the age of five, Parents or caregivers who were in foster care as a child. Grant manager is Amelia Rivera	Nome as well as NEC members residing in Anchorage
Resource Center for Parents & Children- Family Support Grant	Primary prevention services: In-home supports; ongoing family assessment; facilitated access to resources; service coordination; parent education and support; and transportation.	Non-OCS involved families. Referrals can come from OCS, the community or parents. OCS Grant Manager is Alana Medel.	Fairbanks
Resource Center for Parents & Children- Circles of Support	In-home Family Preservation Services: Family Service Coordination, Service plan implementation and monitoring, Assessment of family progress, Parent Education and Support; and Transportation Services	OCS case worker refers for families with child(ren) in the home. OCS may have an open case, or may close after referral if no safety threat is identified. Family may be referred for reunification when child is or will soon be on a Trial Home Visit. OCS Grant Manager is Alana Medel	Fairbanks
Resource Center for Parents & Children, Family Contact Grant	Family Contact Services: Supervised family contact, Transportation	OCS case worker refers for OCS involved families with child(ren) in out of home care. OCS grant manager is Alana Medel	Fairbanks
Resource Center for Parents and Children, Stevie's Place Child Advocacy Center	Coordinated Forensic Interviewing, Case management, provision of forensic medical exams, crisis mental health services and family advocacy services for victims and their families.	Any child who is an alleged victim of sexual abuse, severe physical abuse or domestic violence. Referrals can come from OCS or Law enforcement. OCS grant manager is Richard Bloomquist	Fairbanks, Utqiavik and communities of the Northern Region
Tanana Chiefs Conference- Family First Prevention Services	Secondary Prevention Services: Creation of a Prevention Plan with the family, providing in-home services, making referrals as needed, and case management. Includes regular face to face contact through the completion of the prevention plan.	Families where there is at least one child determined to be at imminent risk of entry into foster care, but able to safely remain at home or in a kinship placement with receipt of services under the child's prevention plan. The following populations are prioritized for prevention services: Substance exposed newborns and their parents, Parents of children under the age of five, Parents or caregivers who were in foster care as a child. Grant manager is Amelia Rivera.	Northern Communities served by TCC

Southcentral

Agency	Description of services	Who can be referred	Area of the state served
Alaska Family Services, Inc.- Family Support Services Grant	Primary prevention services: In-home supports; ongoing family assessment; facilitated access to resources; service coordination; parent education and support; and transportation.	Non-OCS involved families. Referrals can come from OCS, the community or parents. OCS Grant Manager is Alana Medel.	Wasilla, Palmer and surrounding rural area
Alaska Family Services, Inc.- Circles of Support Grant	In-Home Family Preservation Services: Family Service Coordination, Service plan implementation and monitoring, Assessment of family progress, Parent Education and Support; and Transportation Services	OCS case worker refers for families with child(ren) in the home. OCS may have an open case, or may close after referral if no safety threat is identified. Family may be referred for reunification when child is or will soon be on a Trial Home Visit. OCS Grant Manager is Alana Medel	Wasilla, Palmer and surrounding rural area
Alaska Youth and Family Network (AYFN)-Circles of Support	In-Home Family Preservation Services: Family Service Coordination, Service plan implementation and monitoring, Assessment of family progress, Parent Education and Support; and Transportation Services.	OCS case worker refers for families with child(ren) in the home. OCS may have an open case, or may close after referral if no safety threat is identified. Family may be referred for reunification when child is or will soon be on a Trial Home Visit. OCS Grant Manager is Alana Medel	Palmer and Wasilla area
Alaska Family Services, Inc.- Family Contact Grant	Family Contact Services: Supervised family contact, Transportation	OCS case worker refers for OCS involved families with child(ren) in out of home care. OCS grant manager is Alana Medel.	Wasilla, Palmer and surrounding rural area
Aleutian Pribilof Islands Association Inc.- Family First Prevention Services	Secondary Prevention Services: Creation of a Prevention Plan with the family, providing in-home services, making referrals as needed, and case management. Includes regular face to face contact through the completion of the prevention plan.	Families where there is at least one child determined to be at imminent risk of entry into foster care, but able to safely remain at home or in a kinship placement with receipt of services. Priority populations include: Substance exposed newborns and their parents, Parents of children under the age of five, Parents or caregivers who were in foster care as a child. Grant manager is Amelia Rivera.	Aleutian Region, St. George Island, Tribal Members in Anchorage and Mat-Su.
Bristol Bay Native Association- Family First Prevention Services	Secondary Prevention Services: Creation of a Prevention Plan with the family, providing in-home services, making referrals as needed, and case management. Includes regular face to face contact through the completion of the prevention plan	Families where there is at least one child determined to be at imminent risk of entry into foster care, but able to safely remain at home or in a kinship placement with receipt of services. Priority populations include: Substance exposed newborns and their parents, Parents of children under the age of five, Parents or caregivers who were in foster care as a child. Grant manager is Amelia Rivera	Bristol Bay Region
Knik Tribe	Family Contact Services: Supervised family contact, Transportation	OCS case worker refers for OCS involved families with child(ren) in out of home care. OCS grant manager is Alana Medel.	Wasilla, Palmer and surrounding rural area
Big Brothers Big Sisters SYNC- Mentorship for Youth Grant	Matching foster youth and former foster youth with adult mentors.	Foster Youth ages 14-21; May be in or out of custody. Contact Regional Independent Living Specialist for referral.	Mat-Su
Bristol Bay Area Health Corp. Child Advocacy Center	Coordinated Forensic Interviewing, Case management, provision of forensic medical exams, crisis mental health services and family advocacy services for victims and their families.	Any child who is an alleged victim of sexual abuse, severe physical abuse or domestic violence. Referrals can come from OCS or Law enforcement. OCS grant manager is Richard Bloomquist.	Dillingham; 34 Villages of Bristol Bay Region
Copper River Basin- Child Advocacy Center	Coordinated Forensic Interviewing, Case management, provision of forensic medical exams, crisis mental health services and family advocacy services for victims and their families.	Any child who is an alleged victim of sexual abuse, severe physical abuse or domestic violence. Referrals can come from OCS or Law enforcement. OCS grant manager is Richard Bloomquist.	Gakona; Copper River Valley, Valdez
Kodiak Area Native Association Child Advocacy Center	Coordinated Forensic Interviewing, Case management, provision of forensic medical exams, court accompaniment crisis, mental health services and family advocacy services for victims and their non-offending family members.	Any child who is an alleged victim of sexual abuse, physical abuse, drug endangerment, and/or domestic violence. Referrals can come from OCS or Law enforcement. OCS grant manager is Richard Bloomquist	Kodiak Island and surrounding villages
Matanuska Community Health Care Child Advocacy Center	Coordinated Forensic Interviewing, Case management, provision of forensic medical exams, crisis mental health services and family advocacy services for victims and their families.	Any child who is an alleged victim of sexual abuse, severe physical abuse, domestic violence, and/or neglect. Referrals can come from OCS or Law enforcement. OCS grant manager is Richard Bloomquist	Wasilla, Palmer and other communities of the Mat-Su Valley
South Peninsula Haven House- Child Advocacy Center	Coordinated Forensic Interviewing, Case management, provision of forensic medical exams, referrals for mental health services and family advocacy services for victims and their families.	Any child who is an alleged victim of sexual abuse, severe physical abuse or domestic violence. Referrals can come from OCS or Law enforcement. OCS grant manager is Richard Bloomquist.	Homer, Seward, Kenai and other communities of the Kenai Peninsula. Facilities located in Homer and Kenai.
Frontier Community Services- Circles of Support	In-Home Family Preservation Services: Family Service Coordination, Service plan implementation and monitoring, Assessment of family progress, Parent Education and Support; and Transportation Services	OCS case worker refers for families with child(ren) in the home. OCS may have an open case, or may close after referral if no safety threat is identified. Family may be referred for reunification when child is or will soon be on a Trial Home Visit. OCS Grant Manager is Alana Medel	Kenai, Soldotna

Southeast

Agency	Description of services	Who can be referred	Area of the state served
Catholic Community Service- Child Advocacy Center	Coordinated Forensic Interviewing, Case management, provision of forensic medical exams, referrals for crisis mental health services and family advocacy services for victims and their families.	Any child who is an alleged victim of sexual abuse, severe physical abuse or domestic violence. Referrals can come from OCS or Law enforcement. OCS grant manager is Richard Bloomquist	Juneau and the communities of Southeast Alaska
Central Council Tlingit and Haida Indian Tribes of Alaska- Family First Prevention Services	Secondary Prevention Services: Creation of a Prevention Plan with the family, providing in-home services, making referrals as needed, and case management. Includes regular face to face contact through the completion of the prevention plan	Families where there is at least one child determined to be at imminent risk of entry into foster care, but able to safely remain at home or in a kinship placement with receipt of services under the child's prevention plan. The following populations are prioritized for prevention services: Substance exposed newborns and their parents, Parents of children under the age of five, Parents or caregivers who were in foster care as a child. Grant manager is Amelia Rivera.	Juneau
Women in Safe Homes- Circles of Support Grant	In-Home Family Preservation Services: Family Service Coordination, Service plan implementation and monitoring, Assessment of family progress, Parent Education and Support; and transportation.	OCS case worker refers for families with child(ren) in the home. OCS may have an open case, or may close after referral if no safety threat is identified. Family may be referred for reunification when child is or will soon be on a Trial Home Visit. OCS Grant Manager is Alana Medel	Ketchikan, Saxman

Western

Agency	Description of services	Who can be referred	Area of the state served
Tundra Women's Coalition Child Advocacy Center	Coordinated Forensic Interviewing, Case management, provision of forensic medical exams, referrals for crisis mental health services and family advocacy services for victims and their families.	Any child who is an alleged victim of sexual abuse, severe physical abuse or domestic violence. Referrals can come from OCS or Law enforcement. OCS grant manager is Richard Bloomquist	Bethel and the 56 surrounding villages of the region

Statewide

Agency	Description of services	Who can be referred	Area of the state served
Alaska Children's Trust - Statewide Coordination of Parenting and Prevention Services	Primary Prevention: Mini-grants for parenting classes are awarded to 10 rural communities. The grantee also leads the coordination of a statewide prevention effort, focusing on a developing a statewide prevention plan and a robust April Child Abuse Month Prevention campaign.	Parenting classes are offered to the public by the following agencies: Sprout Family Services, Southeast Alaska Association for Education of Young Children, Kenai Peninsula Community Care Center, Community Connections, Bristol Bay Borough School District, Rural Alaska Community Action Program Inc., Maniilaq Association, Nome Community Center, and Arctic Slope Native Association. OCS grant manager is Alana Medel.	Homer, Juneau, Kenai, Ketchikan, Ketchikan, King Salmon, Kodiak, Kotzebue, Nome, Utqiagvik
Alaska Center for Resource Families (ACRF) - Services for Adoption Support Grant	Post adoption and guardianship services for parents including crisis support, referral and advocacy, support groups and networks.	Any current or potential adoptive/guardian family regardless of where the child was adopted. OCS grant manager is Jack Eddy.	Statewide
Alaska Center for Resource Families (ACRF) - Resource Family Training	Training and support for Resource Families, to include foster parents, relatives, extended family who are or would like to care for children involved with OCS.	Any individual or family who is caring for a child in foster care, or is interested in becoming a resource parent, guardian or adoptive parent. OCS grant manager is Alana Medel.	Statewide
Facing Foster Care in Alaska-Foster Youth Independence Retreats Contract	Youth retreats providing Life Skill and Career development opportunities for older foster youth. Held three times a year.	Independent Living program eligible youth. Contract manager is Naomi Davison.	Statewide
Catholic Social Services- Permanent Families Grant	Adoption or Guardianship Home study for Resource Families adopting or becoming guardians of children in care.	OCS permanency specialists refer the study in order to promote the timely finalization of adoption or guardianship. OCS grant manager is Yvonne Hill.	Statewide